

Public Health Preparedness & Leadership

Satellite Broadcast & Webcast

Hosted by the Rhode Island Department of Health

September 14, 2006

10:00 – 11:00 AM Eastern Time

Held in the Cannon Building's Auditorium (lower level)

3 Capitol Hill, Providence, RI

This program will address similarities and differences between traditional and crisis leadership, and will provide public health professionals and their partners with information about how to strengthen leadership skills and minimize chaos during crisis.

Speaker: Louis Rowitz, Ph.D., Professor community Health Sciences, Director of the Mid-America Public Health Leadership Institute, School of Public Health, University of Illinois at Chicago. Author of Public Health for the 21st Century: The Prepared Leader.

Target Audience: National audience of state and local public health leaders, professionals, and public health preparedness personnel.

This program will be available in other formats such as: A live webcast.

CEUs: Nursing Contact Hours, CHES and CME credits are available upon completion of evaluation and post-test. For more information go to www.ualbanycph.org

Registration: For those external to the Department of Health, please contact Rosa Anderson to register at Rosa.Anderson@health.ri.gov Telephone: 401-222-8335. There is no fee.